Collection Description

Biographical Note

The Georgia Nursing Oral History Project is the outcome of a project funded with grants from the Emory University Research Committee and managed by Margaret Parson, professor in Emory's Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of oral history interviews with Georgia nurses conducted by Margaret Parsons, Rose Cannon and others from 1986-1992, including audiotapes containing recordings of interviews, transcripts, case files of the project containing biographical information, and release forms.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.
