Collection Description

Administrative History

The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission is a quasi-judicial, independent agency within the United States Department of Justice that adjudicates claims of U.S. nationals against foreign governments under specific jurisdiction conferred by Congress, pursuant to international claims settlement agreements or at the request of the Secretary of State. It was granted jurisdiction over small claims (less than $250,000) arising from the Iranian Revolution by the Algiers Accord of 1981, the Foreign Relations Authorization Act of 1985, and the “lump sum settlement” decision of the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal. (See Richard B. Lillich & David J. Bederman, Jurisprudence of the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission: Iran Claims , 91 AM. J. INT’L L. 436.)

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of 247 orders and 2729 decisions of the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission arising from claims by U.S. nationals against the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran. It also includes miscellaneous related documents.

Arrangement Note

Organized into three series: (1) Miscellaneous, (2) Orders, and (3) Decisions.
