Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

The Manuscript Deeds collection is an artificially created collection acquired by donation and purchase. The collection consists primarily of various types of land deeds created in England during the years 1286 to 1896. Most documents are on vellum, with a few on paper.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by year, name of first party, and document description.
