Collection Description

Biographical Note

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) is the regional body for the accreditation of degree-granting higher education institutions in the Southern states. The Commission's mission is the enhancement of educational quality throughout the region and it strives to improve the effectiveness of institutions by ensuring that institutions meet standards established by the higher education community that address the needs of society and students. It serves as the common denominator of shared values and practices among the diverse institutions in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and Latin America and other international sites that award associate, baccalaureate, master's, or doctoral degrees.

Scope and Content Note

This series consists of documents relating to self-studies of Oxford College required as a part of the ongoing reaccreditation process from 1955 through 2003.
