

Tractatus de Habitibus Vitiosis, circa 1620

Emory University
Pitts Theology Library
1531 Dickey Drive, Suite 560
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-4166

---

Descriptive Summary

Title: Tractatus de Habitibus Vitiosis, circa 1620
Call Number: Manuscript Collection No. 007
Extent: .2 cubic feet (1 box)
Abstract: A Roman Catholic manual for aid in catechesis, consisting of two parts: (1) tract on bad habits and (2) On moderating the perturbations of the soul.
Language: Materials entirely in Latin.

---

Administrative Information

Restrictions on Access

Unrestricted access.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

All requests subject to limitations noted in departmental policies on reproduction.

Source

Purchased from a London book dealer in 1983.

Citation

[after identification of item(s)], Tractatus de Habitibus Vitiosis, MSS 007, Archives and Manuscript Dept., Pitts Theology Library, Emory University.

Processing

Processed by Anita K. Delaries, January 1984.

---

Collection Description

Biographical Note

Nothing is known of the author or original owner of this manuscript.

Scope and Content Note

This bound volume consists of two parts. The first part is titled "Tractatus de habitibus vitiosis [Tract on bad habits]. It is paginated to page 145 and has six unnumbered pages at the end which constitutes the table of contents. Part two is entitled "De Moderandis Animi Perturbationibus" [On moderating the perturbations of the soul]. Like part one it is followed by a table of contents. Part two ends with Laus Deo B.M.V. et B.P.N. Ignatio [Praise be to God, to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and to our Blessed Father Ignatius.] The book is a Roman Catholic manual for directors in catechetical or dialogue form. Since Ignatius was canonized in 1622 the book probably predated that year. It is written in Latin.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

