Collection Description

Biographical Note
Compagnia del Archangelo Raffaello (Company of Archangel Raphael) was dedicated to the worship of Archangel Raphael. Only one of three angels mentioned by name in the Apocryphal Bible, Raphael is the chief figure in the book of Tobias. Only in the 17th century did masses in his honor become more numerous. The cover is engraved with clouds and a ladder (Scala), the symbol of the Company. The ladder also appears on the brass centerpiece on the back cover with the letters S.N.D.R.A. (Societas nostri Domini Raphaelli archangeli). Book dealer's description remains with volume.

Scope and Content Note
The choir book of the Compagnia del Archangelo Raffaello, detta La Scala, contains antiphons and hymns, Offices of the Virgin from Advent to Easter, including the Lamentations of Jeremiah. In the end is an Index of Hymns, indicating when they are to be sung, starting with "Creator Alme Siderum" for Advent. Then follow additional hymns, ending with one in commemoration of the Archangel Raphael. An additional piece on the last flyleaf is in a later hand.
