Collection Description

Biographical Note

The son of John Wallace and Elizabeth M. (Warren) Hamilton, James Wallace Hamilton, was born in Pembroke, Ontario, Canada on May 4, 1900. A Methodist minister, he was ordained a deacon in 1929 and received full connections as elder in 1932. From 1927 to 1929 he served as minister at Trinity Methodist Church in St. Petersburg, Florida. He also ministered to the Pasadena Community Church in St. Petersburg from 1929 until 1968, the year of his death.

Scope and Content Note

About 400 manuscript versions of sermons delivered at the Pasadena Community Church in St. Petersburg, Florida. Spanning from 1938 to 1968, the sermons are arranged chronologically. Sound recordings were made for many of Dr. Hamilton's sermons. An index of those sermons on cassette tape is available in the library.
