Collection Description

Biographical Note
Leander E. Keck was born near Washburn, North Dakota on March 3, 1928. He received the B.A. from Linfield College in 1949, and the B.D. from Andover Newton Theological School in 1953. He spent the winter of 1955 studying in Kiel, Germany, and the summer of 1957 studying in Germany, at Goettingen. In 1957, he received the Ph.D. from Yale University.

Keck was an instructor in Bible History at Wellesley College 1957-1959. During the years 1959-1972, he was an Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor in the Vanderbilt University Divinity School. Then in 1972, Keck moved to the Candler School of Theology at Emory University as a Professor of New Testament. In 1980, he was appointed Dean of the Divinity School at Yale University.

Scope and Content Note
This collection contains twenty articles and five reviews written by Keck in various periodicals published 1955-1976. There is also one personal interview with Keck done by Wendell Willis on the subject of preaching. In the last folder is a curriculum vitae by Keck dated September 1, 1972, and a list of the publications of Keck dated February 1973. This collection is not a complete compilation of Keck's works.
