Collection Description

Scope and Content Note
This collection consists of two albums containing a total of 86 memorial cards. The cards are of Victorian-Edwardian style. The albums were catalogs used by funeral directors for the purpose of allowing customers to select memorial cards that were customarily distributed following the burial of the deceased.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.
