CHURCH OF ENGLAND.
Church of England. An alternative title of the ministration of public baptism of infants which may be used at the discretion of the minister unless the parents require the use of the Form of 1662, circa 1930

Emory University
Pitts Theology Library
1531 Dickey Drive, Suite 560
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-4166

Descriptive Summary

Creator: Church of England.
Title: Church of England. An alternative title of the ministration of public baptism of infants which may be used at the discretion of the minister unless the parents require the use of the Form of 1662, circa 1930
Call Number: Manuscript Collection No. 119
Extent: 1 volume
Abstract: Contains one calligraphic manuscript of 22 pages.
Language: Materials entirely in English.

Administrative Information

Restrictions on Access
Unrestricted access.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction
All requests subject to limitations noted in departmental policies on reproduction.

Citation
[after identification of item(s)], Church of England. An alternative title of the ministration of public baptism of infants which may be used at the discretion of the minister unless the parents require the use of the Form of 1662, Archives and Manuscripts Dept., Pitts Theology Library, Emory University.

Processing

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.
Church of England. An alternative title of the ministration of public baptism of infants which may be used at the discretion of the minister

Collection Description

Scope and Content Note
This calligraphic manuscript of 22 pages is done with red, blue, and black ink on handmade paper and bound in blue leather. In the title the "Form of 1662" refers to the baptism ceremony Church of England. An alternative title of the ministration of public baptism of infants which may be used at the discretion of the minister unless the parents require the use of the Form of 1662, circa 1930