Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

This photograph album contains approximately 150 photographs of various nineteenth century English Roman Catholic clergy members and laity. Among the clergy are photographs of Pope Pius IX, James Chadwick, Frederick William Faber, Henry Edward Manning, John Henry Newman, William Bernard Ullathorne, and Nicholas Patrick Wiseman. Many of the men were bishops in the Catholic Church and had ties to the Oxford Movement. The album also contains photographs of other clergy and religious, including several nuns; English churches; and lay individuals. Although many of the individuals were identified, no additional information was found about them.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.
