Collection Description

Biographical Note
Richard William Church was an Anglican clergyman and the Dean of St. Paul’s, London. He was also involved in the Oxford Movement.

Scope and Content Note
This collection consists of two letters from R.W. Church to a Mr. Kempe, possibly John Edward Kempe. The first was written on January 10, 1877. In the letter Church gives Kempe conditional acceptance for giving a lecture. He also recommends Holland, possibly Henry Scott Holland, of Christ Church for giving or hosting a lecture, stating “I think he will be brilliant.” In the second letter dated January 12, 1877, Church states that he cannot give a lecture.
