Collection Description

Biographical Note

Formularies are models for the execution of documents, public or private, used in the Catholic Church. In each formulary, space is left for the insertion of names, dates, and circumstances peculiar to each case.

Scope and Content Note

This particular formulary celebrates a young man's entrance into the Franciscan order. It consists of seven pages, four of which are comprised of plainsong chants in Gregorian notation. The text of the formulary is in Spanish while the chants are in Latin.
