

HEADLAM, ARTHUR C.
(ARTHUR CAYLEY), 1862-1947.
Arthur C. Headlam, The church in Canada, undated

Emory University
Pitts Theology Library
1531 Dickey Drive, Suite 560
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-4166

Descriptive Summary

Creator: Headlam, Arthur C. (Arthur Cayley), 1862-1947.
Title: Arthur C. Headlam, The church in Canada, undated
Call Number: Manuscript Collection No. 252
Extent: 0.01 cubic ft. (1 folder)
Abstract: Contains one typed carbon copy manuscript of the original essay on the Anglican Church in Canada.
Language: Materials entirely in English.

Administrative Information

Restrictions on Access

Unrestricted access.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

All requests subject to limitations noted in departmental policies on reproduction.

Citation

[after identification of item(s)], Arthur C. Headlam, The church in Canada, Archives and Manuscript Dept., Pitts Theology Library, Emory University.

Processing

Processed by Joan S. Clemens, 2002.

Collection Description

Biographical Note

Arthur Cayley Headlam was born in 1862 and died in 1947. Headlam was an English prelate in the Church of England. He served as principal of King's College, London from 1903 to 1912. From 1918 to 1923 he was regius professor of Divinity at Oxford where he was also canon of Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Christ Church. He was appointed Bishop of Gloucester in 1923 and remained in that position until 1945. Doctrine of the Church and Christian Reunion is one of many publications by Headlam.

Scope and Content Note

This manuscript is a typed carbon copy of the original essay on the Anglican Church in Canada. The essay has no date but the text indicates that the piece was written in the early 1920s. Headlam examines various influences on the church in Canada that will impact the success and future growth of the denomination.

