Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of three items. The first is a framed print of John Wesley "Preaching from the Steps of a Market Cross," published by Bovril, produced by C.W Faulkner & Co., London, 1909. The artist was Whatnerell [sic].

The second item is a handwritten book of spiritual poetry and/or hymns written by Selina Chency Bayley, circa 1867. There are some illustrations on several pages as well.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

The last item is a scrapbook that contains newspaper clippings and correspondence, circa 1908 regarding Dr. Charles O. Jones, a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church. There is correspondence to Jones from friends and relatives.
