

VEITCH, WILLIAM.

William Veitch letter, 1828

Emory University
Pitts Theology Library
1531 Dickey Drive, Suite 560
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-4166

---

Descriptive Summary

Creator: Veitch, William.
Title: William Veitch letter, 1828
Call Number: Manuscript Collection No. 296
Extent: 0.01 cubic ft. (1 folder)
Abstract: Consists of one letter addressed to "Reverend Friend" in which Vietch discusses his recent religious experiences including the baptism of his children.
Language: Materials entirely in English.

---

Administrative Information

Restrictions on Access

Unrestricted access.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

All requests subject to limitations noted in departmental policies on reproduction.

Citation

[after identification of item(s)], William Veitch Letter, Archives and Manuscript Dept., Pitts Theology Library, Emory University.

Processing

Processed by Cynthia Bunch, 2004.

---

Collection Description

Biographical Note

There is little biographical data on the author of this piece. William Veitch was an apparently well-educated, affluent resident of Charleston, South Carolina. He was married and had children.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of one letter addressed to “Reverend Friend.” In the letter Vietch discusses his recent religious experiences including the baptism of his children. Elegantly written, the letter provides a snap shot of life in 1828, discussing health, religion, camp meetings and personal relationships.

