psychology from California Coast University. He retired from the ministry in 1979 but continued his career in counseling until he retired from private practice in North Carolina in 1997. His publications include God is Always with Us and When Love is Not Enough, A Child's View of Parenting. Benoît now resides in Port Arthur, Texas.

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of correspondence from James C. Whitaker to Cecil R. Benoît. The correspondence began in 1960 and continued until 1994 with a gap from 1964 to 1976. Whitaker created a "study group" in the early 1960s and corresponded with this group about his views on numerous theological issues. Whitaker's letters to Benoît are often copies of letters he wrote to different members of the study group. Topics discussed in the letters include Soren Kierkegaard, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, existential Christianity, segregation and civil rights, psychotherapy, and death.
