Collection Description

Biographical Note

Josiah Pratt was the first son and successor of his father, Josiah Pratt (1768-1844), who was chosen by parishioners to lead St. Stephen's church. No additional information could be found about the younger Pratt. His father, however, was known as an evangelical divine. The senior Josiah Pratt helped form the British and Foreign Bible Society as well as the Church Pastoral Aid Society.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of a letter dated September 20, 1854 from Pratt's sister, Marianne Kempthorne in Auckland, New Zealand. The letter is in regard to their father's death in 1844 and the division of his assets.
