

COPLESTON, W. I.

W. I. Copleston Letter to Mr. Smyth, 1851

Emory University
Pitts Theology Library
1531 Dickey Drive, Suite 560
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-4166

Descriptive Summary

Creator: Copleston, W. I.
Title: W. I. Copleston Letter to Mr. Smyth, 1851
Call Number: Manuscript Collection No. 313
Extent: 0.01 cubic ft. (1 folder)
Abstract: Contains one letter written by W. I. Copleston.
Language: Materials entirely in English.

Administrative Information

Restrictions on Access

Unrestricted access.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

All requests subject to limitations noted in departmental policies on reproduction.

Citation

[after identification of item(s)], W. I. Copleston Letter to Mr. Smyth, Archives and Manuscript Dept., Pitts Theology Library, Emory University.

Processing

Processed by Aimee Morgan, 2005.

Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

This three-page letter, addressed to “my dear Mr. Smyth,” is dated August 1, 1851. In it, Copleston discusses the status of a recent book: “...the publisher tells me that the Vol. is selling off well and that is what very few do this season for the Great Exhibition has swamped the literary Interest.” Copleston also expresses his hope that Smyth has recovered from influenza, as well as his hope to see Smyth in the autumn.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

