Collection Description

Biographical Note

Quentin L. Hand holds degrees from Indiana University (AB, 1945), Garrett Biblical Institute (BD, 1948) and Boston University (PhD, 1960). He is Professor Emeritus of Psychology and Pastoral Counseling at Candler School of Theology. He resides in Loganville, GA.

Hand was a charter member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. He has held several leadership positions in the organization, including Secretary (1969-1973), Chair of the Constitution and Bylaws Revision Committee (1975-1978) and Secretary-Treasurer (1987-1991).

Scope and Content Note

The papers document Quentin Hand's involvement in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. Included are materials from annual meetings and conventions, financial information, and correspondence with AAPC leaders. Most of the financial records and correspondence date from 1987-1991, the years in which Hand served as Secretary-Treasurer of AAPC. This collection also contains files on Hand's participation in the effort to document AAPC history.

For additional materials on pastoral care, see the online subject guide at <http://www.pitts.emory.edu/Archives/Subject%20Guides.html#PastoralCare>.
