publisher founded in 1892. Shorney began as Office Manager at Hope, and later held the positions of Vice President (1961-1970), President (1970-1991) and Chairman (1992-2001). He retired in late 2001.

Shorney resides in Wheaton, IL with his wife Nancy. They have four children.

Scope and Content Note

The papers consist of correspondence files kept by George Shorney during his career with Hope Publishing. The files contain correspondence with five prominent hymn writers: Tom Colvin, Timothy Dudley-Smith, Fred Pratt Green, Fred Kaan, and Shirley Erena Murray. Both incoming letters and copies of outgoing letters are included. Interfiled with the correspondence are copies of hymns, contracts, and the occasional photo or cassette tape. The letters concern the business of hymn publishing and hymnal sales, but there are also insights into the creative process of hymn-writing and evidence of the deep friendship between George Shorney and the hymn writers whose works were published by Hope Publishing.

Files are arranged alphabetically by last name of correspondent, and chronologically thereunder. There is also a copy of a dissertation on the hymns of Fred Pratt Green written by Mark Barum in 1989. The dissertation may be found immediately following the Fred Pratt Green correspondence.

Arrangement Note

Arranged alphabetically by last name of correspondent, and chronologically thereunder.
