Collection Description

Biographical Note
Tore Meistad was born on July 8, 1942 in Trondheim, Norway. Meistad was ordained in the United Methodist Church in Norway and served the church as a pastor and in other capacities. He attended the United Methodist Seminary in Gothenburg, Sweden (M.Div., 1966) and later studied theology at the University of Bergen, Norway (B.A., 1972), and then at the University of Trondheim (M.A., 1983; PhD. 1989). His 1989 dissertation was given the title: "To be a Christian in the World: Martin Luther's and John Wesley's Interpretation of the Sermon on the Mount." His academic career focused primarily on the theology of John and Charles Wesley, publishing articles and books in both English and Norwegian. At the time of his death, he was Associate Professor of Religion at Agder University College in Kristiansand, Norway. Meistad passed away on June 8, 2000.

Scope and Content Note
This collection contains Meistad's curriculum vitae, Vernon Robbins extensive interview with Meistad, and a series of papers and publications, primarily covering the theology John and Charles Wesley, and Wesleyan theology in Norway.

Arrangement Note
Arranged alphabetically by type, then name.
