Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

This collection is comprised of correspondence, photographs, retreats for first Communicants, and sermons. Sermons make up the greater part of the collection and include topics such as All Saints' Day, the Blessed Virgin Mary, Christmas, the Immaculate Conception, and the Rosary. Only one sermon is signed, and it is signed by Thomas S. Lee - who also has a letter in the correspondence section of the collection. The photographs include portraits of the Most Rev. M.J. Curley, D.D., "Father Buckey," and a high altar. Most of the correspondence belongs to Miss Helene Philbert.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Arrangement Note

Arranged alphabetically by subject.
