Collection Description

Historical Note

The News Service and Media Relations Office was established in 1950. In 1982 the office became part of the Georgia United Methodist Communications Council. The office represents the North Georgia Conference and supplies information about the conference and the United Methodist Church to both religious and secular media outlets.

Scope and Content Note

This series consists of photographs, biographies, newspaper clippings, and other information about various individuals, groups, subjects, and events in the North Georgia Conference. Some of the individuals are or were ministers in the North Georgia Conference, including Bishop Arthur J. Moore. The collection also contains files relating to the 1968 Uniting Conference that officially united the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Methodist Church. The collection is arranged by category and thereunder alphabetically by surname or subject. These files date from 1962-1974.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by category and thereunder alphabetically by surname or subject.
