Collection Description

Administrative History

The Union Musical Sacred Harp Singing Convention began holding its annual meeting in 1868.

Scope and Content Note

This collection comprises the published minutes of the Union Musical Sacred Harp Singing Convention and annotations, drafts, and notes related to their creation. These materials were written and compiled by Hazel Cagle, the organization's longtime secretary. The minutes contain information about the convention and its activities and list songs that were sung and participants who were present at the meetings. The Union Musical Sacred Harp Singing Convention met at various churches in Atlanta's northern metropolitan area.

Arrangement Note

Arranged chronologically.
