Collection DescriptionBiographical Note

Jon Arge, born Randall J. Baker, is an Atlanta, Georgia, based photographer and artist. He was born in Venice, Florida. He graduated from high school in the mid 1980s and then attended the Savannah College of Art and Design (Savannah, Georgia). In 1991, he relocated to Atlanta, Georgia, where he established a clientele of commercial and private clients, including IBM, Coca-Cola, and Turner Broadcasting System. His work has been exhibited at numerous Atlanta galleries and institutions, including Kai Lin Gallery, 800 East, and the Atlanta Contemporary Arts Center (ACAC). He was one of eleven artists chosen for the ACAC 2001 Atlanta Biennial. In 2010, the readers of Georgia Voice voted him Best Local Artist. His work has also appeared in Etc. magazine, Claire, Popcorn, and other Atlanta LGBT publications. Arge currently resides in Asheville, North Carolina.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the photographs and papers of Jon Arge and contains Polaroid photographs, artwork, event files, sketchbooks, and printed material that primarily document Atlanta's gay nightlife. Many of the photographs document events at clubs like Metro and Backstreets where only Arge was permitted to bring his camera. The photographs also document Atlanta's drag queen scene and events like Wigwood (fundraiser for ActUp Atlanta and the AIDS Survival Project) and WigOut (fundraiser for MondoHomo at Friends on Ponce), as well as other fundraisers, and house parties. Additionally, the photographs show events that took place at art studios and museums, such as 800 East and the Atlanta Contemporary Arts Center. The printed material and event files also document Arge's work with the American Music Show, the Atlanta Biennial, and Wigwood. The artwork and sketchbooks show Arge's work in mediums other than photography, especially drawing.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type then by title. Titles were provided by the creator, except where noted by brackets in the container list.
