Appraisal Note

Curator of Modern Political and Historical Collections Randy Gue acquired the collection as part of the Rose Library's holdings in contemporary photography. During processing in 2018, Rose Library staff removed half of a linear foot of duplicate materials and returned them to the donor. Appraisal decisions were made by Accessioning and Collections Manager Meaghan O'Riordan in consultation with Randy Gue.

Processing

Arranged and described at the collection level by Meaghan O'Riordan, September 2018. The donor housed nearly all of the printed material in sleeves in binders organized by year, and this arrangement was retained during processing.

Collection DescriptionHistorical Note

Atlanta Celebrates Photography (ACP) is a non-profit arts organization dedicated to the cultivation of the photographic arts and the enrichment of the Atlanta, Georgia, art community. The organization stemmed from a conversation between Corinne Adams and Susanne Katz in 1998 about how to build a stronger photographic community in Atlanta. The 501(c)3 was formed with Susan Todd-Raque as President, Susanne Katz as Vice President, Pam Holland as Treasurer, and Corinne Adams as Secretary. The four founding officers and Lucinda Bunnan funded the founding of the organization. Anna Dennington became the first full-time Executive Director in 2004. In 2007, ACP hired Michael David Murphy as Program Manager and Amy Miller as the new Executive Director. ACP developed "ACP Now!" a dynamic online resource for photographers, venues, and enthusiasts, updated weekly.

ACP hosts an annual, citywide photography festival in October, the Atlanta Celebrates Photography Festival. The festival includes a wide variety of exhibitions and multiple events around Atlanta and throughout the surrounding communities. Throughout the year, ACP sponsors additional community programming and opportunities specifically for the professional development of photographers.
