Collection Description

Biographical Note

Vinnie Williams (1920-), novelist and journalist, resides in Thomson, Georgia.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of papers relating to Vinnie Williams from 1957-1980, which were collected by Bill Baxter.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

The collection includes correspondence (1970-1980); galley proofs and a corrected typescript of Greenbones, a novel written by Williams and published in 1967. The collection also includes clippings, reviews, greeting cards, and photographs. Of particular interest is the correspondence from Williams to her friend, Bill Baxter, written from her home in Thomson, Georgia, during the 1970s. The letters describe events and activities in the author's life and offer encouragement to Baxter as he pursues an interest in writing.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.
