Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

This artificial collection is comprised of bookplates collected by Emory University Library Special Collections (now Rose Library). Bookplates are from Emory University faculty and Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

students as well as various Emory libraries. There are also bookplates from numerous authors and American libraries, as well as from the armed services and foreign institutions. A significant portion of the collection is the collection of Richard D. Cohen, donated to the library in honor of his parents. There are numerous armorial/heraldic plates and plates autographed by their artists in the Cohen collection.
