Collection Description

Biographical Note

Jack Stewart Boozer, scholar and teacher of religion was born in 1918 and died while on a trip to Europe in 1989. He was a graduate of Emory University, Charles Howard Candler Professor of Religion at Emory, a published author and lecturer, and an activist in civic and social movements.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of notes, research materials, manuscripts, published articles, correspondence, and administrative and printed material. Notes, research materials, manuscripts, and published articles reflect Boozer's research and writing on Paul Tillich, Rudolf Otto, the Holocaust, and ethical issues. Correspondence and administrative and printed materials relate primarily to Emory University, faculty committees, student groups, his musical interests, and his involvement with the Druid Hills Civic Association.

Arrangement Note

Unprocessed collection; inventory available in repository.
