Collection Description

Biographical Note
Panke M. Bradley, urban social worker and civic leader, first woman to serve on the Atlanta Board of Aldermen (1971) and was re-elected to the new City Council (1973).

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of papers of Panke M. Bradley from 1970-1977. The papers include correspondence and committee material relating to her service on the Board of Alderman; correspondence, agendas, committee files and subject files relating to her City Council service; and City of Atlanta reports and other miscellaneous printed material. The subject files reflect her interest in such issues as housing, transportation, and zoning.

Arrangement Note
Unprocessed collection.
