Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of papers of Malcolm Honore Bryan from 1919-1974. The papers include memorabilia from Bryan's high school years (1919-1920); correspondence, including family letters (circa 1923-1974) primarily to his wife, Nancy; correspondence with Harold Martin (1945-1962) and Ralph McGill (1951-1964) while both were writing for the Atlanta Constitution and with D.C. Johns (1963-1967), President of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. The papers also include writings by Bryan, particularly articles, speeches and books relating to finance; miscellaneous unpublished reports for the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta prepared during Bryan's tenure as President; memoranda, reports and audiotapes pertaining to his participation in the Economic and Financial Mission to Peru (1940, 1949, 1960); two scrapbooks; and miscellaneous photographs and clippings.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.
