Collection Description

Biographical Note
Philip Carrington was born July 6, 1892 in Lichfield, England, the son of The Very Reverend Charles Walter Carrington. Carrington was educated at Christ's College, New Zealand; Canterbury University College, New Zealand; and Selwyn College, Cambridge (Honorary Fellow, 1958)

He served as Rector of Lincoln, New Zealand (1922); Warden of St. Barnabas Theological College, South Australia (1924-1927); Speaker at Melbourne Church Congress (1925); Dean of Divinity Bishop's University, Quebec (1927); Bishop of Quebec (1935-1944); Archbishop of Quebec and Metropolitan of the Province of Canada (1944-1960).

Scope and Content Note
The Philip Carrington collection consists mainly of a corrected typescript of an apparently unpublished work entitled "We Are Also Men: An Old-Fashioned Historical Novel in the Vulgar Tongue". This typescript, divided into twelve subtitled chapters, is undated. Also included in this collection is a two page holograph letter written by Albert F. Lutely, Cambridge, to Philip Carrington, dated 23 March without a year designation.

Arrangement Note
Primarily arranged by chapter.
