College and the Decatur Orphans Home. He married Mary Kate Moss (1907) and was the author of articles published in the Wesleyan Christian Advocate.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of Richard Cox Cleckler, 1892-1956. It includes letters, photographs, pastor's books, printed materials, notes, clippings, and certificates. All letters but one are written to Mary Kate Moss (1905, 1907). Photographs are portraits, a church, a church class, the Emory class of 1894, and Robber's Fountain. Pastor's books (1892-1940) contain church rolls, addresses, and accounts. Printed material includes pamphlets and leaflets related to the Methodist Church and religious education, including articles written by Methodist bishops and others. Some material relates to the World Sunday School Convention (1907).

Arrangement Note

Arranged by document type.
