Collection Description

Biographical Note

John Moreno Coe (1896-1973), attorney and civil rights activist, chairman of the Progressive Party in Florida (1948-1952), and President of the National Lawyers Guild in the 1950's, resided in Pensacola, Florida.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of John Moreno Coe from 1919-1973. The majority of the collection is comprised of legal case files documenting Coe's career as a lawyer. Mainly consisting of civil cases, the case files reflect Coe's interest in representing individuals defending or asserting their civil rights.

Other records documenting his law practice include correspondence and legal documents (1919-1973), bills and receipts (1948-1971), and appointment books (1960-1972). The collection also contains correspondence and legislative materials (1925-1928) relating to Coe's service in the Florida Senate (1925-1928), correspondence documenting his involvement in the Progressive (1948-1952), and correspondence documenting his work with the American Civil Liberties Union, National Lawyers Guild, and other organizations.
