Collection Description

Biographical Note

James Monroe Culpepper (1838-1901), son of Mariner (1793-1838) and Jane McCrary Culpepper (1798-1874), was born in Monroe County, Georgia, the youngest of nine children. His siblings included Bartley Anderson Culpepper (1818-1821), Pallitine Caroline Culpepper (1820-1821), Comfort Amanda Culpepper (1822-1868), Daniel Clark Culpepper (1825-1862), Benjamin Franklin Drayton Culpepper (1828-1839), Mariner Jackson Culpepper (1830-1872),

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Lucinda Council Culpepper (1832), and Frances Edna Culpepper (1834). After his father's death in 1838, his mother moved the family to Houston County, Georgia.

James Monroe Culpepper served in the 6th Georgia Infantry Regiment during the Civil War, enlisting in Atlanta in 1861 and serving until 1865. After the war he served as Senator from the 23rd Senatorial District and was a member of the Houston County Board of Commissioners and on the Fort Valley City Council.

He married Martha Kemp (ca. 1846-1870), the daughter of Joseph (1813-1860) and Catherine Elizabeth Kemp (1826-1906) in 1866. Catherine Elizabeth Kemp was the daughter of James T. Davis and Hannah Kinsey. After his first wife's death, he married Nancy Hannah Kemp (1857-1917) in 1876.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of papers of the Culpepper family from 1836-1905. The papers include legal and financial records and a small amount of personal correspondence of Joseph Kemp; Benjamin Kemp; James Monroe Culpepper and his first and second wives, Nancy Hanna Kemp and Martha Kemp Culpepper; Mariner Culpepper; and other family members residing mainly in Houston County, Georgia. Of particular interest are legal documents including indentures, wills, estate inventories, deeds, property maps, and slave bills of sale; and financial records including tax and personal account records and miscellaneous bills of sale.

Additional family papers include personal letters, legal papers, and financial records of Daniel Clark Culpepper, Nancy Culpepper, members of the Walker and Davis families, and others, ca. 1822-1918.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by individual and record type, and then in chronological order.
