Collection DescriptionBiographical Note

James Curran Erskine Davis, attorney, judge, and legislator, was born 17 May 1895, in Franklin, Georgia, and died 28 December 1981, in Atlanta, Georgia. He was a state legislator from DeKalb County, Georgia (1924-1928), an attorney for the Georgia Department of Industrial Relations (1928-1931) and for DeKalb County (1931-1934), a Georgia Superior Court judge (1934-1946), and a Georgia representative to the United States Congress (1947-1963). Davis married Mary Lou Martin (1905-1969) in 1932, and was publisher (1964-1965) of the Atlanta Times, a conservative newspaper.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of correspondence, audio-visual materials, speeches, subject and fact files of James C. Davis from 1919-1966. Materials relate to J.C. Davis's congressional campaigns; his work on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee and District of Columbia Committee; other congressional committees, government agencies and departments; proposed and passed legislation; and military service academies. Correspondence includes some received from constituents. Some non-congressional materials and personal correspondence relate to Davis's friends and family and his career before and after his term as a U.S. congressman. The audio-visual materials include photographs, television and other films, and audio discs and tapes.

Arrangement Note

Unprocessed collection. Organized into thirteen series: (1) Audio-visual materials, (2) Campaign files, (3) Carbons, (4) Case and claims, (5) Correspondence, (6) D.C. Committee, (7) Fact files, (8) Legislation files, (9) Non-congressional materials, pre-congressional and post congressional, (10) P.O. and C.S.
