[after identification of item(s)], Ophelia Devore-Mitchell papers, Stuart A. Rose Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library, Emory University.

Appraisal Note

Acquired by Curator of African American Collections, Randall Burkett, as part of the Rose Library's holdings in African American Culture and History. During processing in 2017, Rose Library staff removed and shredded six linear feet of photocopies and one linear foot of extraneous material, such as office supply catalogs, canceled pay checks of Ophelia DeVore Associates staff members, junk mail, commercial popular music, and national magazines unrelated to the collection, such as Life and Newsweek. Curator of African American Collections, Pellom McDaniels, III, offered an additional three linear feet of duplicate photographs and printed material back to the DeVore family. Appraisal decisions were made by Manuscript Archivist, Sarah Quigley, in consultation with Pellom McDaniels, III.

Processing

Arranged and described at the file level by Dayne Alexander, Haylee Harrell, and Sarah Quigley, 2017. Rose Library staff retained DeVore-Mitchell's original filing system of binders and file folders. Within those categories, staff imposed consistent descriptive conventions to aid access. Staff also imposed some physical rearrangement within categories to aggregate like materials. Because the Ophelia DeVore School of Charm operated under different names over the years, in the finding aid we have referred to it simply as the Ophelia DeVore School.

Collection Description*Biographical Note

Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell (1922-2014), African American model and business woman, was born in Edgefield, South Carolina, on August 12, 1922. Her parents were John Walter DeVore, who was of German and French descent, and Mary Emma Strother, of Native American and African American heritage. In 1933, DeVore-Mitchell's parents sent her to New York, New York, to live with her aunt and complete her education. She graduated from Hunter College High School (New York, New York) and attended New York University.

DeVore-Mitchell began modeling in 1938 at the age of 16 and worked primarily for Ebony magazine. In 1941 she married Harold Carter, with whom she had five children before divorcing in 1966. In 1946, she and four friends co-founded Grace del Marco Models, a modeling and talent agency, which represented such notable figures as Diahann Carroll, Richard Roundtree, Cicely Tyson, and Helen Williams. The agency sought to encourage media to portray African-Americans in non-stereotypical ways. She opened a charm school in 1948 and offered courses on elocution, movement, and presentation. Eventually, she founded Ophelia DeVore Associates, under which she ran the school and modeling agency, developed a cosmetics line, produced the first beauty pageant for African American women, and served as a consultant in sales and marketing for companies targeting minority communities.

DeVore married Vernon Mitchell, publisher of The Columbus Times (Columbus, Georgia), in 1968. They divorced in 1969, and he passed away in 1972. After his death, she took over as publisher and brought the paper under the Ophelia DeVore Associates umbrella. The newspaper, still published by the family, is the only DeVore Associates business that remains in operation. DeVore-Mitchell died in 2014.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell from 1937-2010, including correspondence, personal papers, and the records of Ophelia DeVore Associates and its subsidiaries: The Columbus Times, Grace del Marco Models, the ODV Performing Company, Ophelia DeVore Cosmetics, The Ophelia DeVore Show, and the Ophelia DeVore School. Correspondence is both personal and professional and includes invitations, award letters, greeting cards, and business correspondence relating to Ophelia DeVore Associates. Personal papers contain DeVore-Mitchell's awards and certificates, identification and membership cards, passports, financial records, legal records, and medical records. The records of Ophelia DeVore Associates consist of administrative records, such as memoranda, agendas and minutes, and financial records, and promotional material, such as event programs and fliers for products and services. The records document the company's major functions and initiatives, such as charm school courses, model bookings, beauty pageants, and cosmetic sales. The records also document the work and contributions of staff members and leaders within the organization: James D. Carter, Carol Gertjegerdes, Camille Petty Dee Simmons, and Jacqueline Wellington. There is no significant documentation in the collection about DeVore-Mitchell's most famous clients. There are additional records of DeVore-Mitchell's involvement with other professional and political organizations, such as the National Newspaper Publishers Association; the National Black Republican Council; the New York Black Republican Council; and Top Ladies of Distinction, a service and educational organization of African American women. The collection includes numerous photographs and a significant amount of audiovisual material, particularly recordings of The Ophelia DeVore Show; various courses offered by the DeVore School; staff meetings and training; pageants; and meetings of the National Newspaper Publishers Association.

The documents in Series 1: Binders overlap significantly with documents in Series 2: Files. Subject matter and original function of the documents are often the same but, over time, were kept in different filing systems by DeVore-Mitchell. The binders were created by DeVore-Mitchell. It is not clear if she ever intended to eventually put the documents that remained in file folders into binders or if she created the binders specifically to highlight material she felt was particularly important.

Arrangement Note

Organized into two series: (1) Binders, (2) Files

Series 1
Binders, 1937-2006
Boxes 1-83; OP 1; OBV 1-2 and 4-12; and AV 20

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of binders of material compiled by Ophelia DeVore from 1937-2006. The binders include materials from Ophelia DeVore Associates and its related subsidiaries: Grace del Marco Models, Ophelia DeVore Cosmetics, the DeVore School, The Columbus Times, The Ophelia DeVore Show, and Ophelia DeVore International. Ophelia DeVore Associates binders document events such as the company's 50th anniversary celebration and alumni association reunions. Ophelia DeVore Associates binders also include financial records; expansion proposals; marketing, promotional and publicity material; correspondence; and information concerning Ophelia DeVore's memoir. Marketing materials mostly consist of sales data from Ophelia DeVore Associates, general information about business marketing, and marketing to black consumers. Promotional and publicity materials contain pamphlets, brochures, and advertisements for Ophelia DeVore Associates and its subsidiaries. Binders also contain materials relating to community programs, events, and organizations associated with Ophelia DeVore Associates such as pageants, Double Dutch, Bridging the Gap, and The Ebony Affair. Pageant binders include photographs, sign-up sheets, and judging sheets from the Miss Achiever, Miss Empire State, Miss America, and Miss New Decade competitions.

The series also includes binders documenting other areas of DeVore-Mitchell's life. These contain board and committee files, printed material, photographs, political documents, and speeches. Board and committee binders include materials from DeVore-Mitchell's appointment to the Presidential Advisory Committee on the Arts (1985) and her long-time service to the National Newspaper Publishers Association. Printed material consists mostly of magazines and newspaper clippings. Photograph binders contain United Press International press and news photos; photographs of pageants, Ophelia DeVore Associates alumni events and trips abroad to Africa; and headshots and candid photographs of Dee Simmons and other friends and colleagues of Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell. Political binders include photographs of DeVore-Mitchell with Ronald Reagan, George H. W. Bush, Jimmy Carter, and other White House officials. Political binders also include materials concerning black voters. Finally, binders contain material from projects such as I Dream a World: Portraits of Black Women who Changed America, the National Visionary Leadership Project, and The HistoryMakers.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.

Processing

In order to preserve Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell's original intent, processing staff kept the materials from the binders in their original order and maintained original titles when they were present. Staff removed documents from the original binders for preservation and placed them into folders but left the documents in their original order. Most binders required multiple folders to contain all of the associated documents and the folders are numbered accordingly in the container list. Staff photocopied binders with significant annotations or illustrations on the cover to preserve informational content. To improve accessibility and highlight connections between the binders and material in Series 2: Files, staff imposed organizational categories and grouped together binders with similar content. DeVore-Mitchell's original binder titles informed these categories. DeVore's original titles are indicated in the container list with quotation marks. Binders consisting of materials relating to the subsidiaries and programs of Ophelia DeVore Associates are organized under Ophelia DeVore Associates. All binders contain a mix of formats and subjects, but they are organized according to the majority of materials they contain. For example, binders consisting of at least 75 percent magazines, pamphlets, and brochures are organized under printed material.

Series 2
Files, 1920-2010
Boxes 84-149; OP 1-3; OBV 3 and 13-16; AV 1-20

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of files created and maintained by Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell from 1920-2010. Files include correspondence, personal papers, records of Ophelia DeVore Associates, other professional papers, printed and promotional material, and photographs. Correspondence includes personal invitations to events, invitations to judge pageants or speak, thank you notes, holiday cards, solicitation letters, award letters, and letters regarding the business activities of Ophelia DeVore Associates, particularly The Columbus Times.

Personal papers contain awards and certificates, identification and membership cards, passports, financial records, legal records, medical records, and some family papers. Ophelia DeVore Associates records document the business activities of Ophelia DeVore Associates and its subsidiaries: The Columbus Times, Grace del Marco Models, the ODV Performing Company, Ophelia DeVore Cosmetics, and the Ophelia DeVore School, as well as numerous pageants produced by the company. The files contain memoranda, financial records, event planning files, contracts, and other administrative records. The subseries also includes a significant number of recordings of The Ophelia DeVore Show, a cable access television program hosted and produced by DeVore-Mitchell.

Other professional papers contain DeVore-Mitchell's appointment and address books, board and committee files, and subject files. Board and committee files document the organizations in which DeVore-Mitchell was involved, particularly National Newspaper Publishers Association (NNPA), the New York Black Republican Council, and Top Ladies of Distinction. Printed and promotional material consists primarily of promotional material for Ophelia DeVore Associates and its subsidiaries, including brochures, calendars, event fliers, fliers for general company promotion, invitations, newsletters, press releases, and event programs; a significant portion of these materials are related to DeVore Associates' modeling shows, showcases, and graduations. Photographs document Ophelia DeVore Associates events and also include personal photos of Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell and her family.

Arrangement Note

Organized into 6 subseries: (2.1) Correspondence, (2.2) Personal papers, (2.3) Ophelia DeVore Associates records, (2.4) Other professional papers, (2.5) Printed and promotional material, and (2.6) Photographs

Subseries 2.1

Correspondence, 1961-2010

Boxes 84-87

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of correspondence documenting the personal life and professional activities of Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell from 1961-2010. Correspondence includes personal invitations to events, invitations to judge pageants or speak, thank you notes, holiday cards, solicitation letters, and award letters, as well as correspondence regarding the business activities of Ophelia DeVore Associates and The Columbus Times. There are numerous sympathy cards from January 1997 following the death of DeVore-Mitchell's sister Precola DeVore. Correspondence regarding The Columbus Times is often addressed to or written by DeVore-Mitchell's daughter, Carol Gertjegerdes (sometimes abbreviated Gerdes), and pertain to advertising in the paper.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in chronological order.

Subseries 2.2
Personal papers, 1954-2006
Boxes 87-90 and 143-144; OP 1 and 3

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell's personal papers from 1954-2006, including awards and certificates, identification and membership cards, passports, financial records, and medical records. The subseries also includes legal records, such as the divorce decree from her marriage to Vernon Mitchell and the editorial reference file for DeVore v. Time. There are materials relating to DeVore's family, including planning files for a family reunion and the memorial service for DeVore's sister and business partner, Precola DeVore. Finally, there are several files documenting DeVore's attempts to donate her personal papers to a special collections library, including Duke University, Emory University, Harvard University, Yale University, and the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.

Subseries 2.3

Ophelia DeVore Associates records, 1955-2005

Boxes 91-113 and 145; OBV 15; AV 1-15 and 18-20

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of records of Ophelia DeVore Associates and its subsidiaries: The Columbus Times, Grace del Marco Models, the ODV Performing Company, Ophelia DeVore Cosmetics, and the Ophelia DeVore School, as well as numerous pageants produced by the company. Records are administrative in nature and primarily include memoranda, meeting agendas and minutes, event planning files, marketing and advertising files, financial records, and reports. General administrative records contain numerous financial records documenting the operation of the company and its various components, as well as files documenting plans for a possible expansion of the organization, milestone anniversary events, and major consulting programs. Records of The Columbus Times document publication of the newspaper in Columbus, Georgia, including contracts, advertising files and financial records, policies and procedures, and planning files for their annual gala, "Head and Shoulders Above the Rest." Grace del Marco Models records mostly contain activity and financial reports. Weekly financial reports include information about model bookings. Notable in this section are contracts between the models and the agency, as well as contract termination letters. There are also records documenting such staff as Carol Gertjegerdes (sometimes abbreviated Gerdes), Rosella Laurence, Gina Burns, and Dee Simmons.

ODV Performing Company records overlap significantly with records for the Ophelia DeVore Alumni Association and document events at which the company performed. Records of Ophelia DeVore Cosmetics are minimal and primarily document sales of the cosmetics line. The Ophelia DeVore School records include course descriptions and materials, records of the Alumni Association, and recordings of classes and staff meetings. Most of the records for the DeVore School in this subseries are filed under Jacqueline Wellington, who was the school's director. These files contain financial records, teacher evaluations, student feedback, and numerous memoranda between Wellington and DeVore-Mitchell, as well as Wellington and other school staff and students. Pageant records primarily document the planning of Miss Achiever and Miss Empire State, the two major pageants operated by Ophelia DeVore Associates. These files include promotional material, judging sheets, and applications from contestants. Finally, the series contains a significant run of recordings of The Ophelia DeVore Show, a cable access television show hosted and produced by DeVore-Mitchell.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by company, then in alphabetical order.

Processing

The structure of this subseries reflects the administrative structure of Ophelia DeVore Associates. Files relating to specific subsidiaries of Ophelia DeVore Associates are arranged together under the heading for that company. Administrative records relating to the management of Ophelia DeVore Associates, programs that touched on multiple subsidiaries, and functions not managed by a specific subsidiary, are arranged under general administrative records. Processing staff retained DeVore-Mitchell's original files when possible, though they were often merely labeled with a company name. In those cases, staff further sorted records by format or function to enhance access. Correspondence in this subseries was originally arranged in folders labeled with the name of a specific company or is addressed to other members of the staff of those companies. Records for the ODV Performing Company are the only exception; due to the small quantity, those records remain entirely in their original order. ODV Performing Company files may include records older than the date range in the title because their relationship to the files as a whole was not clear. Date ranges on ODV Performing Company files more accurately reflect the time the files were created or kept. Guest names and topics of the television programs in this series were transcribed from tape labels.

Subseries 2.4*Other professional papers, 1958-2005*Boxes 113-128; AV 1-2, 8, 12-13, 15-17, and 19-20*Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of other professional papers from 1958-2005 and includes Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell's appointment and address books, board and committee files, and subject files. Board and committee files document the organizations in which DeVore-Mitchell was involved. There is a large amount of material about the National Newspaper Publishers Association (NNPA), as DeVore-Mitchell was on the board and wrote a column for this organization's publication. There are also numerous audio recordings of NNPA's board meetings, executive meetings, and workshops. The series contains material relating to the Top Ladies of Distinction, of which DeVore-Mitchell was an honorary member, and political and economic organizations, such as the New York City Black Republican Council. These files document black support for the Republican Party, emphasizing economic initiatives and free market equality. Subject files in the series include film scripts and teleplays, biographies, and general materials about people, organizations, and businesses relating to DeVore-Mitchell's work. Notable are files about Florence Rice, the founder of Harlem Consumer Education Council, and Strom Thurmond, which contains information about their possible familial relation.

Subseries 2.5*Printed and promotional material, circa 1964-2003*Boxes 128-132 and 146-148; OP 1-3; OBV 14*Scope and Content Note

This subseries consists of printed material from circa 1964-2003 and includes material created by and about Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell, as well as material collected by DeVore-Mitchell. Printed material by and about DeVore-Mitchell primarily contains promotional material produced by Ophelia DeVore Associates and its subsidiaries, including brochures, calendars, event fliers, fliers for general company promotion, invitations, newsletters, press releases, and event programs; a significant portion of these materials are related to DeVore Associates' modeling shows, showcases, and graduations. Printed materials about DeVore-Mitchell but not produced by Ophelia DeVore Associates contains articles, a calendar, fliers, a profile, a teaching kit, and press releases, including one notable release regarding the dismissal of DeVore v. Time Inc. and the subsequent disappearance of the files from the Supreme Court. Other printed material includes fliers, brochures, event programs, newsletters, newspaper clippings, and guides relating to organizations in which DeVore-Mitchell participated. There is also promotional material for beauty products and companies, other modeling agencies, and publications relating to business and marketing and racial equality in business practices.

Arrangement Note

Arranged into two groups: printed material by and about Ophelia DeVore-Mitchell and other printed material, then in alphabetical order.
