Custodial History

Joanne Kilgour Dowdy packed the collection in her home and shipped the material to the Rose Library.

Citation

[after identification of item(s)], Joanne Kilgour Dowdy papers, Stuart A. Rose Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library, Emory University.

Appraisal Note

Pellom McDaniels, III, Curator of African American collections, acquired the collection as part of the Rose Library's holdings in African American and African diasporic art and theater. One copy of Ancestral Dialogues: The Photographs by Albert Chong was removed from the collection and discarded. Because the book had been wet, the clay coated paper pages were stuck together and could not be separated by conservation staff. Appraisal decisions were made by Manuscript Archivist Sarah Quigley.

Processing

Arranged and described at the box level by Sarah Quigley, April 2018.

Collection DescriptionBiographical Note

Joanne Kilgour Dowdy (1959-) was born to Lennox Kilgour and Kathleen Kilgour in Port of Spain, Trinidad, on November 22, 1959. She attended Holy Name Convent Secondary School (Port of Spain, Trinidad) and began performing with the Trinidad and Tobago Television Workshop (later known as Banyan TV) while still a student. In 1982, she moved to the United States to attend the Boston Conservatory (Massachusetts) where she was mentored by poet, Derek Walcott. After one year, she transferred to the Julliard School (New York, New York), earning a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in theater in 1987. The next year, she completed a master's degree in teaching at Teachers College, Columbia University (New York, New York) and went on to complete a Ph.D. in Literacy Studies at the University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill) in 1997. Dowdy was Assistant Director of the Center for the Study of Adult Literacy and an Associate Professor at Georgia State University (Atlanta) from 1997-2001 and has been a professor of adolescent and adult literacy at Kent State University (Kent, Ohio) since 2001. She has published works on literacy and teaching, as well as a memoir entitled In the Public Eye

(2009). The memoir is a book of photography with extensive captions documenting her life as a performer.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of Joanne Kilgour Dowdy from circa 1975-2017 and includes journals, professional papers, printed material, photographs, and audiovisual material. Professional papers are primarily comprised of subject and teaching files relating to Dowdy's scholarship and work at Kent State University. Audiovisual material includes recordings used in Dowdy's research, as well as recordings of Dowdy's work as a dancer and actor. Printed material consists of clippings about Dowdy and promotional material for her work. Born digital material is currently unprocessed.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.

Finding Aid Note

An inventory of numbered audiovisual recordings is available from the repository by request.
