Collection Description

Administrative History
Emory University undergraduate students Debbie Genzer and Wendy Rosenberg founded Volunteer Emory in 1980 in order to coordinate student volunteer activities. Volunteer Emory began as one of the first on-campus divisions of United Way before merging with the Division of Campus Life. The Alternative Break program, spearheaded by undergraduate Lanchi Nguyen in 1994, is now one of Volunteer Emory’s main programs, alongside Emory Cares Day, which is held in collaboration with the Emory Alumni Association.

Scope and Content Note
Records primarily contain subject files consisting of correspondence, ephemera, and administrative materials. These files include binders documenting the primary operations of the Volunteer Emory office, as well as other major regular programs. Notable recurring programs include Alternative Spring Break, Freshmen In Service for Humanity, the Social Entrepreneurs grant program, and weekly service trips. The collection also includes film, photographs, and slides.

Arrangement Note
Arranged alphabetically by subject.
