Collection Description

Administrative History

Established at Emory University in 1970, the Employee Council facilitates communication between Emory employees and University administration; serves as an advisory body to the President regarding university policies, practices, and programs; and fosters closer working relationships between organizationally disparate groups of employees.

Scope and Content Note

Records of the Employee Council include annual reports, by-laws, correspondence, subject files, membership rosters, minutes, committee and sub-committee materials, and publications. It also contains the captured and preserved web site of the Emory Employee Council available to browse via the Web Archiving Service of the California Digital Library.

Arrangement Note

Organized into seven series: (1) General records, (2) Minutes and agenda, (3) Committees and sub-committees, (4) Publications, (5) Subject files, (6) Unprocessed additions, and (7) Web archives.

Finding Aid Note

Finding aid available in the repository.
