Collection Description

Administrative History
Judson C. Ward (1912-2009), Emory University Executive Vice President. Ward received both a BA and a MA from Emory. He earned his doctorate in history from the University of North Carolina. He taught at Fitzgerald High School, Birmingham-Southern College, and the Georgia Teachers College (now Georgia Southern University), where he also served as the College President. At Emory, Ward was a professor of Georgia history, dean of the undergraduate liberal arts college, vice president and dean of faculties, and executive vice president.

Scope and Content Note
The collection includes files, chiefly correspondence and memoranda, of Judson C. Ward kept during his tenure as both Emory University Vice President and Dean of Faculties. Files relate to Emory schools and departments various aspects of University administration and planning. Notable topics and events documented in the files include Emory University desegregation and race relations, student unrest and Vietnam War era protests of the Emory Air Force ROTC, and capital fundraising efforts. There are also a few items related to Ward's other interests and involvements, including his membership in the Sigma Pi fraternity.
