Collection Description

Administrative History

Without Sanctuary: Lynching Photography in America was published in 2000 and accompanied a travelling exhibition that was displayed at the New York Historical Society, the Andy Warhol Museum, the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site, and Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History. In 2002, Emory University hosted a conference related to the topic of the book and exhibition.

Scope and Content Note

The collection contains materials related to the Without Sanctuary: Lynching Photography in America exhibition in Atlanta and as well as materials from the conference "Lynching and Racial Violence in America: Histories and Legacies." The materials consist of conference administrative materials, documentation of public forums, curricula developed for the exhibition, viewer responses to the exhibit, audiovisual recordings of the conference, clippings, articles, and materials from related events. Box 3 consists of photocopies of pages containing viewer responses specific to the Without Sanctuary exhibit. Original bound volumes in boxes 7 through 10 include all viewer responses. Books 1 through 9 are in the Archives of The Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change, Inc. Additionally, there are two boxes of unprocessed additions that are closed to research.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by subject.
