Collection Description

Administrative History

The Baccalaureate service is an inter-religious ceremony for all graduating Emory University students receiving bachelor's degrees and consists of prayers, music, and an address by the Emory University President. The Commencement ceremony includes all Emory University graduates and consists of an address by the commencement speaker, the conferral of honorary degrees and awards, and the conferral of degrees en masse. The Commencement ceremony is followed by smaller diploma ceremonies in which individual students are recognized by their school or department.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of materials related to Emory University's Baccalaureate and Commencement ceremonies including programs, sermons, addresses, invitations, honorary degree citations, audiovisual recordings of baccalaureate and commencement activities, and other items. It also contains the captured and preserved Emory Commencement web site available to browse via the Web Archiving Service of the California Digital Library.

Arrangement Note

Organized into six series: (1) Baccalaureate, (2) Commencement, (3) Honorary Degree recipients, (4) Related activities and miscellaneous items, (5) Audiovisual materials, and (6) Web archives.
