Collection Description

Administrative History

The Lord of Misrule and Spirit of Emory, Dooley, first appeared anonymously in a letter to The Phoenix literary magazine in 1899. In 1909, the skeleton appeared again in print, signing the letter "Dooley." Dooley is feted annually at Dooley's Week with dances, concerts, and other programmed events.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of memorabilia, correspondence, publications and other items of and related to Dooley.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by file type.
