Collection Description

Administrative History

The Emory University Museum was founded in 1919 shortly after the opening of the University's Atlanta campus. The Museum moved in 1985 following a renovation of the old Law School building and the new location became Michael C. Carlos Hall. The Museum was also renamed at this time, becoming the Emory University Museum of Art and Archaeology, and later the Michael C. Carlos Museum.

Scope and Content Note

The collection contains promotional materials and clippings from exhibitions, events, lectures, and fundraisers held by the Carlos Museum. Also included are annual reports, a self-study committee report, various audiovisual recordings, and websites.

Arrangement Note

Organized into four series: (1) general records, (2) audiovisual recordings, (3) web archives, and (4) unprocessed materials.

Finding Aid Note

Finding aid available in the repository.
