Collection Description

Administrative History

The Emory University Office of the Registrar required matriculating students to provide biographical information on an index card and sign a "Matriculation Pledge" on the reverse of the card. The pledge committed the student to following the University's rules, regulations, and code of conduct.

Scope and Content Note

The materials in the Matriculation cards collection date from 1919 to approximately 1970. The cards are organized alphabetically by student surname. The cards are a rich source of biographical detail and include a student's home address, date and place of birth, father's name and occupation, church membership and religious denomination, information on any previous college attended, along with degree and year, and the student's "probable life work."

Arrangement Note

Arranged alphabetically by student surname.

Finding Aid Note

Finding aid available in the repository.
