Collection Description

Biographical Note

Kenneth F. Murrah of Winter Park, Fla., was a student at Emory University, 1952-1958, obtaining both a bachelor's and a law degree. While at Emory Murrah was involved with the Student Council, Air Force ROTC, Glee Club, Omicron Delta Kappa honor society, and Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of materials from Kenneth F. Murrah's time as an Emory University student and alumnus, including correspondence, brochures, a scrapbook, documents related to planning an Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership conference held at Emory as well as several Glee Club events, and assorted ephemera. The materials related to Alpha Tau Omega span Murrah's years as a student in the fraternity through his involvement with the group as an alumnus, including the years he spent as National Chancellor and National Alumni Director of the organization.
