Collection Description

Biographical Note

Beverly Griffith was a public relations director at Eastern Airlines. He began his tenure at Eastern in 1935 and worked at the company for more than thirty years.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of papers of Beverly Griffith from 1832-1973. The papers include telegrams and correspondence (1913-1969) relating to his career as a public relations executive, mainly at Eastern Airlines in New York; miscellaneous materials pertaining to the history of aviation; photographs; and a scrapbook (1957) commemorating fifty years in public relations and consisting of letters from Eastern Airlines employees. The papers also include family correspondence (1832-1969); printed programs; photographs; scrapbooks; and clippings relating primarily to his sister, Mary Griffith Dobbs, and other Griffith ancestors who were musicians, music educators, and founders of the Griffith School of Music in Atlanta, Georgia.
