Collection Description

Biographical Note
David Hamilton was a private in the 110th Ohio Regiment. Wounded during the Battle of the Wilderness in 1864, Hamilton died on board the boat taking the wounded to Washington. He was buried at Arlington Cemetery.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of a microfilm copy of 6 letters of David Hamilton from 1863-1864. Four of the letters were written to his family and discuss Confederate soldiers, wounded soldiers and the hospital at Fredericksburg, and his proposed transportation to Washington, D.C. The two remaining letters are from Charlotte Bradford, matron of the Sanitary Commission, informing the Hamiltons of David Hamilton's death and burial.

Arrangement Note
Arranged in chronological order.
